

Remembering Ryan White

December 6, 1971-
April 8, 1990

- ⌘ Special advanced viewing of the trailer of upcoming documentary Bad Blood
- ⌘ Speakers talking about their memories of Ryan White, a boy with hemophilia who became infected with HIV through a blood transfusion, was banned from his school, and became an outspoken advocate for people with HIV - even speaking to Congress at age 17!
- ⌘ Audience question and answer session

WORLD AIDS DAY, DECEMBER 1ST, 2009

6:00 PM—8:00 PM

Lane Auditorium, Room 1690
U-M School of Public Health,
Henry F. Vaughan Building I
1415 Washington Heights

Metered parking is free starting at 6:00 PM

Presented by:

With support from the American Red Cross Club of Washtenaw County, the Public Health Student Assembly, the American Medical Association - U-M Student Chapter, Peers Utilizing Leadership Skills for Education (PULSE), and RESULTS-Ann Arbor