

Error Checking

Important Information

- eResearch verifies that all required fields are completed on each page of the application whenever you click Continue >> to move to the next page.
- Prior to submitting the application, you can display a list of required fields that are not complete by using:
 - Hide/Show Errors from any section of the submission.
 - OR
 - PI&S Error Check from the end of the submission.

eResearch Study Application

1. To display a list of required fields that are not complete click:
 - Hide/Show Errors from any section of the application
 - OR

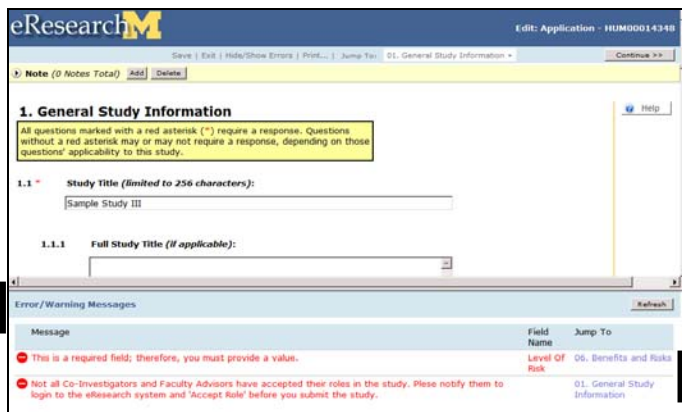

End of Application

- PI&S Error Check from the End of Application

Note: All required fields marked with a red star (*).

Error Window Within Application

- If you clicked Hide/Show Errors from any section of the application, you will see:

Required fields that are not completed appear in a window at the bottom of the application.

Note: Required fields that are not completed are displayed for the entire study application.

OR

Error Window End of Application

- If you clicked PI&S Error Check from the End of Application, you will see:

Required fields that are not completed are displayed for the entire study application in a new window.

- Click the links to jump to the section of the application with fields that are not complete.
- Note: You MUST click Save or Continue >> to save any changes you make.