Sport (Year received varsity-club status)

- Men's Rowing (2000)
- Men's Lacrosse (2000)
- Synchronized Skating (2002)
- Women's Lacrosse (2003)
- Synchronized Swimming (2005)

On September 8th, 2000, University of Michigan Athletic Director Bill Martin announced the formation of a tiered club sports system. Teams that meet certain criteria may apply for "varsity-club" status.

This new tier provides additional recourses for club sport teams that behave more like varsity teams in terms of competition level, budget, and organization.

These varsity-club teams are primarily self-funded through dues and fundraisers. The University of Michigan Department of Recreational Sports will continue to administer over club varsity teams as it does other club teams.

Varsity-club teams are staffed by full-time coaches and compete against national competition. Each year, all club sports are able to apply for club varsity status.

Promotion into the club varsity tier is reliant on criteria associated with budget, coaching, scheduling, practice time, and student-athlete eligibility.

Varsity-club teams do not offer athletic scholarships and are comprised entirely of "walk-on" athletes. Each team holds annual tryouts in the fall.

Varsity-club athletes have access to similar training and academic support as varsity athlete. Varsity-club teams practice and compete in the same facilities used by the varsity teams. Additionally, the Ross Academic Center is open to varsity-club athletes.

Scrimmage vs. MSU

Michigan began its fall season with a scrimmage against intrastate rival Michigan State at Oosterbaan Fieldhouse. After falling behind early 3-1, the Wolverines battled back to top the Spartans 10-8.

The Wolverines got on the board first but the Spartans countered with three unanswered goals. Midway through the second half, Michigan was able to secure the lead which they would hold on to for the win.

Sophomore Amanda Schutte, sophomore Britt Boehm, and junior Amy Johnson each scored two goals while Boehm added a team-high three assists. Other goal scorers for Michigan were Jess Stanley, Julie Baskind, Becca Miller, Amy Santorello, and Rachel Lary.

Alumni Game

The Wolverines welcomed back alums Noelle Frazier, Marie Wolbert, Ashley Steitz and Mimi Kuehn who took part in an alumni game/intrasquad scrimmage at Oosterbaan Fieldhouse. Johnny Sung and Mary Ann Meltzer, former Michigan Lacrosse coaches, also came back to watch the game. The players and alums enjoyed reuniting with their former coaches and teammates.

Frazier (2004-07), brought her new baby, Madison, who gave the Wolverines on the sideline a welcome distraction as they took a breather from the game. Frazier currently resides in Cleveland, Ohio. Madison and Wolbert (2004-07) were both captains and All-Americans in 2007 for the Wolverines. The fourth former player to participate, Kuehn (2003-06) is now living in Columbus, Ohio. Steitz (2005-08), a current Chicago, Ill. resident did not play in the scrimmage but watched from the sidelines.

Sung and Meltzer are both head coaches of varsity programs at Adrian College and University of Detroit Mercy, respectively.

Opening Weekend

Michigan (2-0) swept its opponents on its first day of regular season competition, blowing out Toledo (0-1) 21-1 and Central Michigan (0-1) 24-4.

Boehm led the way, scoring ten goals on the day and sophomore Erin Conroy added six to lead the offensive charge. Freshman Emmy Scheidt and junior Liz Mennen were strong in net, allowing just five goals between the two games.

The blowouts allowed everyone to get in on the action as all players on the roster got to play significant minutes in both games.

Santa Barbara Shootout

The fifth-ranked Wolverines (4-2) took their first road trip of the year traveling to Santa Barbara, Calif. over spring break to compete against a Western lacrosse gauntlet.

In one weekend, Michigan played against #1 UC Santa Barbara, #3 Colorado, #4 Cal Poly and #9 UCLA. Unfazed by the competition, Michigan put together an impressive 2-2 record, turning in a pair of one-goal victories.

First U of M defeated top-ranked UCSB on their home field 7-6 to start the tournament with an eye-catching win. The rest of the field took notice, realizing that the Wolverines were a team to watch as the season progressed.

Both Colorado and Cal Poly topped the Wolverines by one goal apiece before Michigan was able to rebound against UCLA in the weekend's final game to win 9-8.

The scores showed just how close all of the elite WDIA teams are when it comes to talent. All four of Michigan's games came down to one goal and the Wolverines knew that they would see these same teams at nationals to close out the season.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

Big Ten Tournament

Returning home, the Wolverines (4-2) hosted the inaugural Big Ten Tournament. All ten conference schools that offer women's club lacrosse teams traveled to Ann Arbor to participate in the tournament.

Oosterbaan Fieldhouse would play host to 16 games over the three day tournament while Michigan made short work of their four opponents, winning by a combined score of 58-14. Michigan was so dominant that Amy Johnson nearly outscored all of U-M's opponents combined, netting 13 goals herself over the four games.

With the outcomes never in doubt, the Michigan coaching staff used the four games as a live practice for the team to work on new plays and techniques. Second halves were used to practice shooting low on the goalie. Players who shot high were pulled from the games even if they scored.

Players practiced trick shots highlighted by a behind-the-back goal from the stick of Johnson.

Michigan blew past Ohio State to open the tournament on Friday night by a score of 14-7.

The game marked a milestone for Michigan Women's Lacrosse as it was broadcast live on WCBN FM 88.3 in Ann Arbor and online at wcbn.org. The online broadcast drew over 275 listeners with another 500 estimated to have tuned in on the radio.

The second day of the tournament pitted U-M against Penn State and Wisconsin with the Wolverines winning 18-4 and 16-2 respectively.

Michigan then shut down Northwestern 10-1 to close out the tournament undefeated. The four Michigan games drew nearly 1,000 listeners over the weekend.

Michigan @ Oakland University

On a cold and dreary night, Michigan (8-2) took care of business, defeating Oakland University (0-1) by a score of 13-5 at All-American Lacrosse in Pontiac, MI. Delaney Kempner, Rachel Lary and Julie Baskind all scored two goals to lead the team.

After building a commanding 9-2 halftime lead, Michigan used the second stanza to work on its offense, holding the ball and making several passes before attempting a shot.

The patient offense resulted in some beautiful passing and a pair of one-timer goals. Amy Johnson's one-time attempt from Micaela Battiste was denied by Oakland's goalie before Ani Shekerjian poked home her fifth goal of the season off a quick pass from Kempner.

Michigan's concerted effort to pass the ball in order to set up shots showed up in the stats with assists on seven of the thirteen goals. This game concluded a grueling stretch where the team played five games in seven days, finishing with a perfect 5-0 record in those games.

Michigan vs. MSU

In front of a standing-room only crowd, #3 ranked Michigan (10-2) topped interstate foe #14 Michigan State by a score of 12-9. Close to 500 fans crowded Oosterbaan Fieldhouse to watch the Wolverines battle the Spartans in tight contest from start to finish.

Michigan had not been challenged in a game since returning from the Santa Barbara Shootout, winning by an average margin of 11.2 goals in its past five games.

Michigan State made it clear that this would not be another cakewalk for Michigan, taking a 2-1 lead off two goals from Allison Atchoo.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

Michigan would answer on an eight-meter free position shot as Micaela Battiste leaped into the air and bounced a shot past the MSU goalie, to knot the score at 2-2.

The Wolverines would take the lead for good, using two more goals off eight-meter goals from Amy Johnson and Rachel Lary.

Quinn Golinske scored her second goal of the season, recovering after bobbling the initial pass, then beating her defender with a spin move for an open shot on goal.

Johnson would open up the lead up with her second goal of the contest, converting on an eight-meter to give Michigan an 6-3 advantage.

Michigan took a 6-4 lead into the intermission, marking the 11th time in their first 12 games that the Wolverines entered halftime with a lead.

Lary opened up the scoring in the second stanza with her season-high tying third goal of the game. Lary ran a give-and-go to perfection with Johnson who earned the assist.

Alexis Pavle became the third senior to tally a goal on Senior Night, putting Michigan on top 8-4. Fellow senior Battiste raced up the field weaving through Spartan defenders before finding an open Pavle in front of the net.

The Spartans would not go down quietly with Atchoo taking control of the subsequent draw and beating the entire Michigan defense back for a goal to make the score 8-5. Michigan State would score again three minutes later to draw back to within two goals.

Golinske erased any momentum the visiting Spartans were able to build up scoring her second goal of the night on a beautiful one-timer off a Lary assist. Lary found the cutting Golinske on the left post and Golinske swatted the pass into the net before the MSU goalie could even move her stick.

Pavle again pushed the Michigan advantage back up to four goals at 10-6, scoring at the 14:10 mark.

After Michigan State narrowed the gap to 10-7, Lary found Britt Boehm on a cross-crease pass leaving Boehm an open net for her 22nd goal of the season. Pavle would ice the game, completing her hat-trick - all of which came in the second half - at the 7:21 mark. Michigan State scored two goals in the closing minutes to bring the final tally to 12-9.

This was the final home game for Michigan's seven seniors: Alexis Pavle, Natalie Relich, Micaela Battiste, Julie Baskind, Rebecca Miller, Rachel Lary, and Christine Lee. Michigan finished the season undefeated at home with a 7-0 record. The game attendance of 475 set a new program record as spectators had to stand or sit on the ground once bleacher space was exhausted.

Colorado State Shootout

Michigan (14-3) made its second lengthy road trip of the season as they traveled to Boulder, Colo. to play in the Colorado State Shootout.

Facing another group of elite teams, Michigan posted a 4-1 record despite playing in just about everything Mother Nature could throw at the team.

Before the team even played a game, it had to push one of the rental vans out of a snowbank after its driver lost control in the blizzard. Games were delayed on Friday while the field crew shoveled two feet of snow off the playing fields, leaving a border of snow mounds around the field. After the delay, the Wolverines dominated Denver and Wyoming, winning by a combined 29 goals.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

As the snow melted, the competition heated up on Saturday with Michigan facing a pair of ranked teams in #10 BYU and #7 Colorado State.

After earning a hard-fought 8-5 victory over BYU, the Wolverines suffered their third loss of a season, falling to the defending national champion and tournament host, Colorado State 9-7.

All of Michigan's losses last season came by two goals or fewer and to teams ranked No. 2, No. 3, and No. 7 in the country. The team closed out the weekend defeating #18 Minnesota 10-2 on Sunday morning before heading back to Ann Arbor.

Michigan @ Calvin

Despite missing eight players due to injury, academic, or religious commitments, Michigan (15-3) blew past Calvin College (7-5) 18-3.

The team bus pulled up to the field just three minutes before the 7:00 PM scheduled start time but the Wolverines needed little time to warm up, taking the lead just one minute into the game on Amy Santoriello's eighth goal of the season.

Emmy Scheidt kept the lead intact, turning aside consecutive eight-meter shots within a one minute span.

The action stayed in the Michigan offensive zone for the remainder of the half with the Wolverines jumping out to an 8-0 lead before the Knights pushed across their first goal at the 5:15 mark.

Calvin would score again with 1:16 to go in the half, cutting the Michigan lead to 8-2 at the break.

Britt Boehm got the second half scoring started off the opening draw, finding the net just :37 into the second stanza.

Amy Johnson added her third goal of the game to put Michigan into double-digit scoring for the 11th time this season. Michigan is undefeated when scoring ten or more goals.

Johnson added two more goals in the half, tying her career-high with five goals on the evening.

The Wolverines never took their foot off the pedal, scoring six times in the final eight minutes, including two goals in the last :25 to make the final score 18-3.

While it may be hard to stay focused once the outcome is determined, Michigan takes advantage of the opportunity to practice against a live opponent.

"We regroup after every goal and decide what we want to accomplish in offensively before we score again," said senior quad-captain, Julie Baskind. "We set up scenarios for ourselves to mimic the competition we will face at Nationals."

WCLL Conference Tournament

#6 Michigan (17-4) entered the WCLL Conference Tournament in Toledo, Ohio as the top seed, opening the tournament with a 23-2 trouncing of Marquette. Delaney Kempner, Ashley Felber, and Amy Johnson all scored hat-tricks.

Thirteen different players scored goals during the game for Michigan. That stat becomes especially impressive considering the Wolverines only have 15 different players that play attack or midfield.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

Next up for U-M was Pittsburgh which put up more of a fight before the Wolverines pushed past 12-6.

Amy Johnson led Michigan with four goals in the contest. With the victory, Michigan advanced to the finals where they would play #10 Lindenwood University.

With an automatic bid to nationals on the line, Lindenwood upset Michigan, winning 10-8.

With the loss, Michigan had to return home and await the selection committee's decision on their post season fate.

After the eight conferences award automatic bids to their league champions, the committee selects eight more teams for at-large bids.

Fortunately the committee awarded the Wolverines a bid so the season would continue in Scottsdale, Ariz. May 6-9.

US Lacrosse WDIA National Tournament

Round One:
#8 Michigan 17 #9 UCLA 13

Despite the intense 100+ degree heat, eighth-seeded Michigan (18-4) kept its cool, overcoming a three goal deficit in the second half to earn the 17-13 victory over ninth-seeded UCLA (10-8).

Julie Baskind, Jess Stanley, and Amy Johnson registered hat-tricks to lead the Wolverine scoring charge.

Senior quad-captain Micaela Battiste started off the scoring, finding the net 1:25 into the game. UCLA then answered with back-to-back goals, taking a 2-1 lead.

Stanley followed by bouncing home her first goal of the contest off an eight-meter shot, knotting the score at 2-2.

The two teams traded goals until Michigan opened up an 8-6 advantage on a bounce shot from Johnson assisted by Ani Shekerjian.

UCLA closed out the first half scoring consecutive goals to send the game into the intermission tied at 8-8. The Bruins would pick up right where they left off, scoring three unanswered goals to build an 11-8 lead.

Trailing by three, many teams might have panicked and lost focus but not Michigan, said assistant coach, Kasey Hughes.

"We kept our composure and never got panicky during the UCLA run. We played solidly the whole game."

Baskind proved to be the spark for Michigan again, ending the UCLA run with a marker at 23:13, cutting the U-M deficit to two.

Rachel Lary added a goal three minutes later to make it a one goal game. UCLA responded with another tally to lead 12-10 before Michigan went on a run of their own.

"It's a long game and being down by three goals with a full half to go can't stop you. We knew we had to keep it up," said Baskind after the game.

"We slowed the ball down when we had to and our goals came at the right time."

Johnson bounced home two goals within thirty seconds of one another to give U-M the lead for the first time since the opening half.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

UCLA would tie it once more at 13-13 but then Michigan closed the game on a 4-0 run to put it out of reach.

With the sun blazing down, the Wolverines used their depth to overcome the stifling desert heat as nine different players scored in the game.

Along with the three hat-tricks, Alexis Pavle and Lary added multi-goal efforts.

The Wolverine defense stepped it up to seal the victory, holding the powerful UCLA offense goalless over the final twelve minutes.

Emmy Schedit made several key saves down the stretch and fellow freshman, Kelsey Martin intercepted a Bruin pass in the crease, leading to a Michigan goal on the other end to ice the win.

Round 2: #8 Michigan 8 #1 UCSB 9

In a game that seesawed back and forth, #8 Michigan (18-5) came up one goal short in the end, falling 9-8 to #1 University of California Santa Barbara (20-2).

After a scoreless five minutes, the Wolverines jumped ahead 1-0 when Birtt Boehm found a cutting Rachel Lary who lifted a shot over the UCSB goalkeeper.

The two teams would trade goals until the 4:31 mark in the first half when UCSB was able to open up a two goal margin, scoring with 0:20 left in the half.

Many teams may have let up with short time remaining before the intermission, but not these Wolverines.

Lary took the draw herself and raced down the field, finding an open Amy Johnson who wristed a shot into the net with just 0:02 on the clock.

Down one at the half, Michigan stayed positive.

"I think goals like that are really important," said Micaela Battiste. "It gave us a spark going into the second half."

Using the momentum from Johnson's buzzer-beating goal, Michigan came out of the break firing as Julie Baskind scored less than a minute into the second half tying the game at five.

Johnson followed with her second goal of the game just 0:44 later to give Michigan the one goal lead.

UCSB called a timeout after Michigan's two quick goals which seemed to settle the Gaucho nerves.

UCSB went on a 4-0 run over the next fifteen minutes as their offense controlled the ball, draining clock.

The Gaucho defense toughened up, holding the Wolverines without a goal for over 26 minutes.

Michigan survived a three-minute period where it lost two midfielders due to double yellow cards.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

During that stretch, Emmy Scheidt stepped up in the net to keep the Wolverines in contention.

"She was ridiculous once again," Battiste said, of Scheidt. "I think everyone on the team would agree that she kept us in the game."

Scheidt ended the day with 19 saves. Twice during the second half, UCSB had wide-open shots at net but Scheidt was able to come up with the saves. UCSB only managed to convert two eight-meter opportunities in the game.

Coming out of a timeout facing a three-goal deficit, Michigan used all of their remaining energy to muster up one final run.

Alexis Pavle bounced in an eight-meter shot, bringing the Wolverines to within one. Lary won the ensuing draw and just 0:26 later, Johnson earned a hat-trick with a bounce shot to cut the Gaucho lead to one.

UCSB took the final draw and was able to stall for the remaining 1:15 to secure the victory and advance to the semifinals.

Michigan moved into the consolation bracket where they matched up against #4 Cal Poly.

"Cal Poly is one of our big rivals," said senior captain, Becca Miller.

"We're going to play tomorrow like we play every other game. We're going to build on the momentum that we gained in the game today and finish strong."

Round 3: #8 Michigan 10 #5 Cal Poly 8

#8 Michigan (19-5) took the lead early and never looked back on its way to a 10-8 victory over #5 Cal Poly (9-7).

For the third consecutive game of the tournament, Michigan struck first, this time off the stick of Rachel Lary.

Jess Stanley added two more goals to build a 3-0 Wolverine lead in the game's first ten minutes.

Cal Poly finally broke through with a goal at the 16:57 mark but Alexis Pavle converted an eight-meter to put Michigan back ahead by three.

The lead grew to five behind a goal from Julie Baskind and Stanley's third of the game. Cal Poly cut the lead to three with a pair of goals, but Micaela Battiste added a marker on an eight-meter free position shot with two minutes left in the half, extending the lead to 7-3.

Down, but not out, Cal Poly scored four of the first five goals in the second half to cut the Michigan lead to just one goal at 8-7.

Once again, Michigan rode the stellar play of Emmy Scheidt. Cal Poly managed just three goals in the first half as Scheidt came up with 13 saves in the opening period.

Cementing her status as a lock for the All-Tournament team, Scheidt continued to deny Cal Poly shots at point-blank range. The Mustangs only scored on one of their free-position shots all game.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

"She really came out strong this whole tournament, without her we would not have gotten this far. Her composure set a good example for the rest of the team," said senior quad-captain Becca Miller.

Scheidt finished the game with a career-best 23 saves and even managed to pick up one ground-ball.

"I enjoy the pressure of playing the best teams," said Scheidt after the game. "These games have all been so close so it's a lot easier to stay involved in the game."

With the Wolverine advantage down to one goal, freshman attacker Delaney Kempner entered the game for the first time all weekend.

Kempner immediately drew a foul and converted the ensuing eight-meter, shooting high to beat the Cal Poly goalie and giving Michigan the 9-7 lead.

"Our bench is always involved in the game, cheering on our teammates," Kempner said.

"It wasn't hard to adjust to being in the game at a pivotal moment."

Stanley added her fourth goal of the game at the 4:00 mark to seal the victory for Michigan.

Cal Poly would add one last tally at the 1:50 mark to cut the Wolverine lead to 10-8 but Lary won the draw and Michigan's offense was able to keep possession until time expired.

Round 4:

#8 Michigan 11 #2 UC Santa Clara 7

For the second game in a row, #8 Michigan (20-5) led from start to finish, earning fifth place with an 11-7 victory over #2 UC Santa Clara.

Julie Baskind got the scoring started for the Wolverines, finding the back of the net on an eight-meter shot just over one minute into the game. She'd score again one minute later to put U-M ahead 2-0.

After Santa Clara cut the Michigan lead to one, Stanley answered right back. After receiving a pass from Alexis Pavle on the right wing, she cut across the goal mouth, shooting left-handed over the goalie's outstretched stick to put U-M back ahead by two.

Santa Clara converted on a free-position shot to get within one but once again, Michigan responded.

This time it was Pavle turning in the highlight goal as she cut across the crease going cross-body, over the shoulder to beat Santa Clara's First-team All-American goalie and make the score 5-3 in favor of the Wolverines.

The Broncos fought back to tie the game with consecutive goals and it appeared like the game would go into the break tied at five.

However, Rachel Lary came up big for Michigan, scoring a goal off her own rebound with 0:47 left in the half.

The teams traded goals to start the second period, Michigan's coming when Amy Johnson took a beautiful feed from Quinn Golinske and deposited it into the back of the net to put U-M ahead 7-6.

Michigan would extend the lead when a pair of senior captains connected, Battiste to Lary for the marker with 20:10 to play, giving Michigan the two-goal edge.

2009 SEASON REVIEW

For the remaining twenty minutes, the Wolverines would battle the officials along with the Broncos as they drew three yellow cards within a two-minute span.

The second of these cards was called against Baskind, her second card of the day which resulted in an ejection. Despite being down three players, Michigan did not surrender a goal during the penalty time.

Scoring five of the last six goals, the Wolverines put the finishing touches on the win when Pavle bounced in her second goal of the game at the 4:09 mark, extending the lead to 10-7.

Johnson provided the exclamation mark, finding the open net for a hat-trick in the closing minute.

Scheidt preserved the Wolverine lead, putting the final brushstrokes on her masterpiece tournament.

Scheidt saved 66% of shots during the four game stretch, a feat that is even more remarkable considering it came against the first, second, fifth, and ninth seeded teams. For her efforts, Scheidt was a unanimous selection to the All-Tournament team.

With the win, Michigan capped a spectacular season, reaching the twenty win mark for just the second time in program history and the first since 2005.

"It was nice to go out with a win today," said Johnson. "The seniors have been such a huge part of the team so we wanted to get the win for them and finish the season on a high note."

Having also obtained her teaching certificate, Dunbar earned a Master's of Education degree in Exercise Physiology from Wayne State in 2001. Recently, Dunbar has opened up her own athletic training business, Old Skool Training.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Ginny Hughes Assistant Coach (Defense and Goalies)

Ginny (Jernigan) Hughes is in her second year coaching with Dunbar & Hughes for the Michigan program and in her seventh year at the high school level, where the trio coach the three-time state champion Birmingham United.

Under her eye last season, Michigan allowed fewer than six goals per game and freshman goalie Emmy Scheidt received first-team All-Tournament honors at Nationals.

Hughes attended Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia, where she was an eight-time varsity letterwinner (soccer & lacrosse) and served as team captain for both. The Generals' defense finished the 1998 lacrosse season with an eighth-ranked 7.33 Goals Against Average, as Hughes lead the way with a .667 save percentage in goal.

Hughes was an All-ODAC Conference Academic Award winner, W&L scholar-athlete, and also made the W&L Dean's list and honor roll. Ginny also holds the Washington & Lee Women's Lacrosse school record for most saves in a season (210).

After college, Ginny went on to Virginia Tech, where she played club soccer and club lacrosse, while earning her Master's degree. Her academic focus was on impact biomechanics, specifically airbag-induced injuries to people in automobile crashes. Today, Ginny is an airbag engineer at General Motors, where she designs and develops airbags to provide optimal safety and protection in new GM vehicles.

Hughes is married to fellow assistant coach Kasey Hughes and the couple resides in Birmingham, Mich.

The trio has led Birmingham United to three consecutive Division I state titles. Kasey specializes in midfield transition and attack, as well as overall team tactics, substitution strategy and draws.

Hughes spent the first two years of his undergrad career at Andrew College where he was a midfielder and defender on the Men's Soccer team which finished the 1992 season with a record of 24-1-1. Their only loss came in the national championship game.

Hughes then transferred to the University of Central Florida where he finished with four straight semesters on the President's List (4.0 GPA). He is the founder and president of Summit Solutions Group and works as a financial systems consultant.

Hughes is married to fellow assistant coach Ginny Hughes and the couple resides in Birmingham, Mich.

Kasey Hughes Assistant Coach (Offense and Substitution)

Kasey Hughes joined the Michigan program in 2008 and is in his fifth season coaching with Dunbar and (Jernigan) Hughes at the high school level.

THIS IS MICHIGAN

"[Here at Michigan] Olympians coach me. Nobel Prize winners lecture me. I eat lunch with All-Americans. In the athletic training room, I sit next to Big Ten champions. I meet with prize-winning authors during their office hours. I take class notes next to American record holders. I walk to class with members of national championship teams. I open doors once opened by Oscar-winning actors, former Presidents and astronauts ... it's all in the day of a Michigan student-athlete."

NCAA EXCELLENCE

Michigan athletic teams have claimed 52 national championships in 12 sports over the years, beginning with football's 1901 national title. Since then, Wolverine dynasties have developed in football, men's swimming and diving and ice hockey. In fact, no other NCAA Division I program boasts more national titles in hockey or men's swimming and diving. In 2005, Michigan softball captured the nation's attention winning its first Women's College World Series, becoming the first school east of the Mississippi to do so.

Michigan student-athletes have accumulated 278 NCAA titles dating back to 1922. Since 2000, Wolverines have combined for 37 national titles in men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's gymnastics, rowing and wrestling.

MARY SUE COLEMAN PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Mary Sue Coleman is in her seventh year as the 13th president of the University of Michigan. As president, she has unveiled several major initiatives that will have an impact on future generations of students, the intellectual life of the campus, and society at large. These initiatives include the interdisciplinary richness of the U-M, student residential life, ethics in our society, and issues related to health care.

Under her leadership, the University launched "The Michigan Difference" campaign for the future of the institution, which surpassed its goal of $2.5 billion in May 2007. The campaign continues through to its December 2008 deadline, with an emphasis on scholarships and fellowships for students, endowed chairs for faculty and other unmet needs.

Dr. Coleman also has announced a groundbreaking partnership between the University and Google, which will enable the public to search the text of the University's seven million-volume library and will open the way to universal access and the preservation of recorded human knowledge.

President Coleman is regarded as a national spokesperson on the educational value of diverse perspectives in the classroom. Her extensive leadership in higher education includes having served on the Association of American Universities Executive Committee, the Internet2 Board of Directors, the National Collegiate Athletic Association Board of Directors and the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics. Elected to the Institute of Medicine in 1997, President Coleman also is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

For 19 years she was a member of the University of Kentucky's biochemistry faculty. Her work led to administrative appointments at the University of North Carolina and the University of New Mexico, where she served as provost and vice president for academic affairs. From 1995-2002, Dr. Coleman was president of the University of Iowa.

At the University, she holds appointments of professor of biological chemistry in the Medical School and professor of chemistry in the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts. She earned her undergraduate degree in chemistry from Grinnell College and her doctorate in biochemistry from the University of North Carolina.

President Coleman and her husband, Dr. Kenneth Coleman, a political scientist specializing in Latin America, live in the historic President's House on campus. Their son, Jonathan, is a portfolio manager in Denver, Colo.

THE MICHIGAN EXPERIENCE

"I believe you have to do your part to make a difference, because that is what life is all about. [Giving back to the community] is more important than what we do going to the rink everyday. I will not be a hockey player forever.

"What will matter is the kind of person you are. The stuff off the ice and the friendships I made, that is the ultimate satisfaction I take away from Michigan."

Bob Gassoff Michigan Hockey, 1998-2001

The Stephen M. Ross Academic Center opened its doors in December 2005. The $12 million, 38,000 square foot facility, located on State Street between Yost Ice Arena and the Marie Hartwig Building, provides computer labs, tutorial meeting rooms, assembly areas for group projects, and offices for instructional staff.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS PROGRAM (ASP) Michigan possesses the best of both the athletic and academic worlds, with a nationally recognized and comprehensive academic support system. The esteemed University of Michigan Hospital system provides the most advanced medical diagnostic testing and treatment resources available. U-M has nine satellite athletic training rooms, including two full-service facilities in Canham Natatorium and Schembechler Hall.

Michigan student-athletes impact the Ann Arbor and Washtenaw County communities through various service programs, including weekly visits to the C.S. The men's basketball team has participated in U-Meet the Athlete each of the last two years.

THE STEPHEN M. ROSS ACADEMIC CENTER

SCHEMBECHLER HALL provides Michigan football with complete training and strength and conditioning facilities, meeting rooms, staff offices and the Towsley Museum.

NEWT LOKEN MEN'S GYMNASTICS TRAINING CENTER A $300,000 renovation project to the Sports Coliseum created a 7,500 square foot men's gymnastics training site with loose-foam and resi-pits.

ATHLETIC CAMPUS

Michigan is in the midst of a capital campaign to restore and rebuild its athletic campus. Recent additions to the campus include the Ross Academic Center, Junge Family Champions Center and Mortenson Family Plaza. Comprehensive renovations are well underway to Michigan Stadium, while new football and wrestling facilities are being erected along State Street.

THE STEPHEN M. ROSS ACADEMIC CENTER
Completed in winter 2006, this $12 million, 38,000-square-foot building provides academic study space for more than 700 U-M student-athletes. Adjacent to the Marie Hartwig Building on South State Street between Yost Ice Arena and Weidenbach Hall, the three-floor facility provides individual and group study areas, computer labs, meeting rooms for tutorial work, a large meeting room and assembly areas for group projects, and offices for instructional support staff.

WILPON BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL COMPLEX
A $4 million gift from Fred and Judy Wilpon, along with other gifts received, will provide U-M student-athletes and fans with exceptional facilities for baseball and softball for years to come. The complex is named in honor of Fred's parents, Frances and Nathan Wilpon.

ALUMNI FIELD
Alumni Field in the Wilpon Baseball and Softball Complex was dedicated on April 25, 2008, with a 10-0, five-inning win over Michigan State. The $6.5 million project includes a new 1,800-seat grandstand, which, along with 1,000-seat outfield bleachers, doubled the capacity of the stadium, as well as a new indoor hitting facility, press box and media facility, restrooms and a concession area. Expansions to the Donald R. Shepherd Softball Building feature a new, larger athletic training space and team gathering room, as well as the establishment of a pedestrian plaza behind the grandstand.

FISHER STADIUM
Ray Fisher Stadium in the Wilpon Baseball and Softball Complex was officially dedicated on May 2, 2008 with a 4-1 victory over Ohio State. The $11 million project includes a brand new 1,600-square-foot state-of-the-art locker room that connects directly to the indoor hitting facility. The stadium seats 2,500 fans - including 1,700 chairback seats - and features new concession areas, administrative offices, suites and a new press area.

The new WRESTLING FACILITY is being built adjacent to the Preston Robert Tisch Tennis and the Donald R. Shephard Women's Gymnastics facilities on the south athletic campus. At a cost of $5.5 million, the 18,000-gross-square-foot building will include a two-story indoor practice area with three regulation wrestling mats. It also will include athletic medicine areas, strength and conditioning space, a locker room and storage area.
