GENERAL COMMENTS:

Most students indicated they spent approximately 2 months preparing for the TOEFL exam and 3 months preparing for the GMAT.

Some students stated that they started studying too late. Their suggestion was to start 4-6 months prior to the test and study a little every day and part of every weekend.

Many students suggested doing all the available practice exams and doing them within the time specified. Those who waited until the exam day to do the questions under time constraints, found it to be a mistake.
