

Hong Kong Today and Beyond: Economy and Opportunities

A talk by Mr. Donald Tong

Hong Kong Commissioner for Economic and Trade Affairs

Mr. Tong will address these questions:

- How has the global financial crisis affected Hong Kong economically?
- What are the challenges and opportunities facing the city, given the current economic and political environment in Asia?
- How can managers leverage Hong Kong's unique position to expand their businesses in China and the rest of Asia?

As Commissioner, Mr Donald Tong Chi-keung directs the HKSAR Government's efforts in promoting US-Hong Kong economic and trade ties, and constituency-building activities in the US. Immediately prior to this appointment, he was Deputy Secretary for Home Affairs, responsible for policy formulation on development of social enterprise and youth, promotion of civic education and human rights, regulation of gambling, legal aid, religious and data privacy matters.

Hong Kong Economic & Trade Office
New York

Wednesday, October 14th

4:30pm-5:15pm

R1230, Ross School of Business

Reception to follow

RSVP: tinatt@umich.edu

Center for International
Business Education

