

CIBE

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL
BUSINESS EDUCATION

Application Guidelines for 2008

The Center for International Business Education (CIBE) announces its 2008 awards for the support of doctoral dissertation research in international business. Students with approved dissertation proposals from all University of Michigan colleges, schools and departments are eligible. We welcome proposals from all disciplines, including sociology, political science, anthropology, and economics, as well as all business disciplines.

Awards are for up to $5,000. For more information contact Brad Farnsworth, CIBE Director, at 936-3917 or at bradleyd@umich.edu. Applications are due on or before November 19, 2007.

Allowable Expenses

1. Data collection expenses, such as the purchase of publications, duplication costs, and on-line search charges. Purchases of equipment are not allowable.
- 2.
3. Travel, both domestic and international, including transportation, meals, and accommodations. Travel must be on a U.S. air carrier, coach fare and meet our federal funding guidelines.

The Application

The application has five parts:

1. Research proposal, maximum fifteen hundred words, describing the theoretical motivation for your research, the methodology to be used, and the anticipated significance of the research findings.
2. Curriculum vitae.
3. Doctoral program transcript (unofficial is acceptable but subject to verification).
4. Detailed budget and justification.
5. Letter of support from your dissertation committee chair.

Mail proposals to:

Vicki Simon
Center for International Business Education
University of Michigan Business School
701 Tappan Street
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1234

Or email proposals to:

vicsimon@umich.edu

Timetable

The deadline for proposals is November 19, 2007. Proposals received before this date will not be reviewed ahead of schedule. Funds must be expended by September 30, 2008.