

Latin for Reading
LESSON 14

SO FAR	BEGINNING WITH THIS LESSON
-parts of speech: finite verb and infinitive (non-finite verb)	-part of speech: participle (a non-finite sub-class of verb)
-noun-adjective agreement by case, number, gender	-noun-participle agreement by case, number, gender
-adjectival modifiers	-the participle: a new adjectival modifier
-dependent clause with finite verb and subject in the nominative	-dependent clause with non-finite verb and subject in any case
-an adjective raises the expectation of a noun-head	-a participle raises the expectation of a noun-head
-subordinators are subordinating conjunctions and relative pronouns	-subordinators include non-finite verbs