

Student Checklist

Language, Literature, and Culture of Ancient Rome

This minor is designed to provide a basic, but contextual and broad, familiarity with Latin language and literature and the civilization of ancient Rome. More specifically, it requires students to study, at the intermediate and advanced level, Latin and authors writing poetry and/or prose, but at the same time it acquaints the student with the broader historical, social, and cultural context in which these authors lived and worked.

Prerequisites:

- Latin 232 or 194 or equivalent, as determined by the departmental placement examination.

Requirements:

At least 16 credits of courses chosen from the following three groups:

(1) At least two upper-level courses in Latin language and literature, with at least one at the 350-level or higher

_____ Credits: _____

_____ Credits: _____

(2) At least one broad introductory course from the following:

Classical Civilization 102 [The Ancient Roman World] (4 credits)

Classical Archaeology 222 [Introduction to Roman Archaeology] (4 credits)

History 201 [Rome] (4 credits)

(3) At least one upper level course (300 or 400-level) in:

Roman Civilization _____ Credits: _____

Roman Archaeology _____ Credits: _____

Roman History _____ Credits: _____

Total Credits: _____

For further questions or to schedule an advising appointment, please contact:

Prof. Jay Reed Phone: 936-3887 josephdr@umich.edu

Prof. Ben Acosta-Hughes Phone: 764-0347 bacosta@umich.edu

For general questions please contact:

Allison Friendly Undergraduate Administrator

Phone: 615-3181 E-mail: aalt@umich.edu