

Minor in Modern Greek

University of Michigan
Department of Classical Studies
2160 Angell Hall
Phone: (734) 764-0360

Prof. Vassilios Lambropoulos
Academic Advisor, Modern Greek
Email: vlambrop@umich.edu
Phone: (734) 764-0126

Student Checklist

This Minor is designed to provide a basic, but contextual and broad, familiarity with modern Greek language, literature, and culture. More specifically, it requires students to study, at the intermediate and advanced level, Greek and its authors but at the same time it acquaints them with the broader historical, social, and cultural context in which they lived and worked.

Prerequisites:

[] Modern Greek 201 or equivalent, as determined by placement exam.

Requirements:

At least 16 credits to be chosen from each of the following three groups:

(1) A broad introductory course in Modern Greek culture (e.g. Modgreek 214: Introduction to Modern Greek Culture)

[] _____ Term : _____ Credits: _____ Grade: _____

(2) Two upper-level courses in modern Greek language and literature above Modgreek 201.

[] _____ Term : _____ Credits: _____ Grade: _____

[] _____ Term : _____ Credits: _____ Grade: _____

(3) Two upper-level courses investigating more specific cultural issues in Modern Greece, such as the Diaspora and travel (e.g. Modgreek 318: Greek American Culture, Modgreek 340: Travels to Greece)

[] _____ Term : _____ Credits: _____ Grade: _____

[] _____ Term : _____ Credits: _____ Grade: _____

Total Credits: _____

Notes:
