

The Atlantic Studies and European History Workshops Present:

ACROSS THE DIVIDES: APPROACHES TO TRANSNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP

Friday
March 18th 2011

Earl Lewis Room
Rackham Building

8:15 – 9:15 Breakfast

12:30 – 1:30 Lunch

9:15 – 10:45, MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

- Francesca Minonne - Literature Across Borders: The Transnational Italo-Argentine Production of Antonio Dal Masetto
- Tiffany Joseph - Race, Migration and the Transnational Racial Optic
- Ashley Rockenbach - Kindred, Migrant, Refugee: the Banyarwanda diaspora and the formation of Uganda's refugee regime, 1959-1964

1:30 – 3:00, COLONIAL CITIZENSHIP

- Marie Stango - Citizenship and Masculinity: Ideology in The American Colonization of Liberia, 1817-1825
- Ananda Burra - Restructuring the Commonwealth/Restructuring the World: Internationalism, colonial rule and the changing face of liberal exclusion at the turn of the Twentieth Century
- Colleen Woods - Corruption and Contradiction: American Democratic Narratives and the Philippine State

11:00 – 12:30, POLITICS AND IMPERIAL CONNECTIONS

- Crystal Chung - Unlikely Alliances: Friendship and the British Empire, 1875-1975
- Amanda Hendrix-Komoto - An American Seraglio? Race, Empire, and Mormon Polygamy in the Nineteenth Century
- Paul Hebert - Deeply Felt Throughout Canada and the West Indies?: The Sir George Williams Affair, Canadian Neoimperialism, and Caribbean Radical Thought.

3:15 – 4:45, TRANSNATIONAL SUBJECTS

- Elspeth Martini - American Indian Removal and British Imperial Protection: Charles Joseph La Trobe and the Learning of British Colonial Authority in the 1830s United States
- Richard Pierre - Open Access Language: Translation as Transnationalism in German and Russian Literary Cultures
- Adriana Chira - Freedom's Winded Paths: A Study of the Circulation of Vernacular Abolitionism in the Countryside of Central Cuba