The slide set The Sellars Collection: Art by American Women was photographed by Patrick Young and Jeri Hollister, staff photographers for the Department of the History of Art at the University of Michigan. The project was undertaken in December of 1988 at the Collection of Louise and Alan Sellars in Marietta, Georgia. The paintings were shot on color corrected, 35mm. Ektachrome 50 film, using Nikon Cameras and lenses. The duplicate slides were shot on Ektachrome 5071 duplicating film. Considerable effort has been made to ensure the accurate color reproduction of the original work of art. Any slide found to be of unacceptable quality may be returned for replacement or refund within 60 days of receipt.

Information for the identification list was provided by Mr. Paul Sternberg, curator of the collection. University of Michigan Slide Distribution duplicates are subject to all copyright restrictions. They are intended to be used for teaching, research, and other educational purposes. They may not be reproduced or published.

Any questions or suggestions regarding the distribution project should be directed to Joy Blouin, Curator, University of Michigan Slide Distribution Project, Department of the History of Art, Tappan Hall, Ann Arbor, Michigan, 48109-1357.
