A Conversation with Gregory Peck

Saturday, June 19 8 p.m

$34

The Ann Arbor Summer Festival is proud to present the enchanting film legend Gregory Peck, the star that has reached a stature unsurpassed in the history of the motion picture. The evening begins with a montage of clips from Peck's film career, followed by candid tales of Hollywood and his experiences in the movie business. In the final hour, the audience comes into the conversation. You ask the questions and Gregory Peck will answer.

The star of such memorable films as Roman Holiday and To Kill a Mocking Bird, Peck has made more than fifty films and has garnered a lengthy list of awards (most recently a Golden Globe for a cameo as Father Mapple in the USA Network production of Moby Dick). A Conversation with Gregory Peck promises to delight and enthrall both life-long fans and film buffs alike. Don't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity to visit with a legend.
