

Exploring St. Petersburg: A Two-Day Workshop for Teachers*

Saturday, October 11, 8:30am – 3:30pm and Sunday, October 19, 1pm – 5pm

Opening sessions will be held in Room 1636 of the University of Michigan International Institute,
1080 South University, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1106

Registration deadline extended to Tuesday, October 7.

October 11

8:30 Registration and Breakfast

9:00 Keynote Lecture: Exploring St. Petersburg

One-hour Break-out Sessions

10:15-11:15 Choose one:

- Using Visual Art to Unleash Creativity in Writing (elementary / middle school)
- The History of St. Petersburg through Its Architecture (middle / high school)

11:15-1:15 Tour of “The Romanovs Collect” Exhibition and Lunch (1 hour each)

1:15-2:15 Choose one:

- Identity and Portraiture (elementary / middle school)
- Who Owns Art (middle / high school)

2:15-3:15 Choose one:

- Theater Techniques using Russian Folk Tales (elementary / middle school)
- St. Petersburg: The Historical Context of Its Musical Heritage (middle / high school)

October 19

1:00- 2:00 Pre-performance talk

2:00 Miami City Ballet all-Balanchine performance

Post-performance discussion

Name _____ Grades & Subjects Taught _____

Home/Work Phone numbers: _____ Email address: _____

School name & address: _____

Print form and send along with a check for $65 made out to UMS to:

UMS Youth Education Program, Burton Memorial Tower, 881 N. University Ave., Ann Arbor MI
48109-1011. Questions? Call 734.615.0122 or e-mail umsyouth@umich.edu.

*There are 0.5 CEUs available for this event. To receive it, mail a separate check of $10 made out to WISD.