

Harold R. Johnson Diversity Service Award

Office of the Associate Provost for Academic and Multicultural Affairs

Nomination Form

The Office of the Associate Provost for Academic and Multicultural Affairs is soliciting nominations for the Harold R. Johnson Diversity Service Award. Named in honor of Harold Johnson, Dean Emeritus of the School of Social Work, this award was established in 1996 to recognize the contributions of faculty whose service contributes to the development of a more culturally and ethnically diverse campus community. Five awards are made annually and include a $5000 stipend. Nomination deadline is Monday, March 2, 1998.

Nominees must be full-time tenured or tenure-track faculty on the Ann Arbor campus. Nominations are welcome from faculty, staff, and/or students. Criteria for selection include:

- Commitment to the centrality of diversity as an important part of the University's educational mission.
- Writings and public statements which demonstrate intellectual excellence and commitment to cultural diversity in service, teaching, and/or scholarship.
- Efforts to bring about constructive change on issues regarding diversity within his or her academic unit and/or the University.
- Efforts in bringing his or her scholarly knowledge to bear on influencing the success of students and faculty of diverse cultural and racial backgrounds.
- Willingness to serve as a mentor to students.
- Efforts to bring about equity in our society.

Nominations must include the following: this cover sheet, a statement from the nominator regarding the nominee's service and accomplishments in the areas described above, three letters of support, and a copy of the nominee's curriculum vita.

Complete nomination packets are due to the Office of the Associate Provost for Academic and Multicultural Affairs, 3084 Fleming 1340, by Monday, March 2, 1998.
