

What is Kappa Delta Pi?

In the words of current members:

- something to use as a resource
- peer community outside the academic realm
- a place to obtain professional skills
- gives opportunities to interact with children/kids outside of practicum placements
- it is a tool/resource that is available – Why not take advantage?
- head start to things like your philosophy of teaching, portfolios, interviews, etc.
- it is a way to enhance your résumé
- it IS an Honor Society
- creates interaction opportunities between juniors and seniors where advice and forewarning can be exchanged
- community service focused
- it helps you to grow as a teacher
- way that supports you as an individual teacher beyond your time at U-M, as you can be a life long member of KDP
- provides involvement with kids outside of the “academic classroom” setting (fun oriented or community service oriented)
- networking organization
- combines Service + Professional Development + Teacher Development + Social time
- it’s an advantage when you start to look for a job
- seeing and hearing viewpoints other than those in your cohort

You have to EXPERIENCE it!!!!!!
