

Doron Lamm

Address: Department of Near Eastern Studies
3074 Frieze Building
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-1285
Fax: (313) 936-2679

1130 Lincoln Av.
Ann Arbor MI 48104
Tel. (313) 327-1083

Major Area of Specialisation: The Social and Military History of Modern Britain .

Sub Specialisations:

1. Social History of Health and Medicine in Modern Britain.
2. Anthropometric History.
3. Quantitative and Economic History.
4. British Military History and the History of Women in War and in the Military.
5. The Hebrew Language, Modern Jewish History and Culture.

Academic Appointments

1997- University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Lecturer. Department of Near Eastern Studies.

1994-7 New York University. Instructor. The Skriball Department for Hebrew and Jewish Studies.

1991-93 University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Visiting Research Associate, Department of History.

1992 Tel Aviv University. Lecturer at the Arrane School of History teaching "An Imperial Metropolis: Britain and its Empire 1870-1914."

1992 Tel Aviv University. Wiener Research Fellow in the workshop on "Women before and after the First world War." Program for Comparative European History.

1990 York University, UK. Lecturer and Research Fellow

- teaching "British Economic and Social History, 1870-1945". Department of Economics & Related Studies.
- 1984 Centre for Economic Policy Research, London, UK.
Research Assistant to the project on "Unemployment in Interwar Britain". (Prof. B. Eichengreen).
- 1983 Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Teaching Assistant, teaching "A Survey of European Economic History". The Economics Department.
- 1983 The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, Jerusalem.
Lecturer teaching "Modern Jewish National Thought".
- 1982 The Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Research Assistant on Banking in Ottoman Palestine". (Prof. N. G. Gross).
- 1982 The Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Research Assistant for Atlas Karta of Modern Jewish History.
- 1981 The Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Research Assistant to Professor A. Linder, Department of History.

Education

- | | | |
|---------|---|---|
| 1985- | History department, Birkbeck College, University of London. | Ph. D. in Modern British History. Anticipated in fall 1997. |
| 1984-5 | History department, Birkbeck College, University of London. | M. Phil. in Social and Economic History of Modern Britain. |
| 1979-83 | Hebrew University of Jerusalem. | B.A. in History and Economics. Magna Cum Laude. |

Publications and Research Collaborations

Ccurrently completing a doctoral thesis on Militarism and Social Reform: Britain, 1870-1919, Birkbeck College, University of London.
Supervisor: Professor R.C. Floud.

A Collaborator in the Cambridge Group for the History of

NES Internal Review

Population's project on The socio-spatial origin and health among army recruits in the Great War.

"Emily Goes to War: Explaining the Recruitment to the Women's Army Auxilliary Corps in War World I", in Borderlines: Genders and Identities in Peace and War, 1880-1930, ed B. Melman, London, Rutledge, 1997. (Forthcoming)

Book Review. John Komlos, Nutrition and Economic Development in the Eighteenth Century Habsburg Monarchy: an Antropometric History. The Economic Journal 1992.

"British Soldiers of the First World War: Creation of a Representative Sample", Historical Social Research, Vol. 13,4 1988 pp. 55-98.

"The Use of the Portable EPSON PX-8 for Historical Data Collection: The Case of a First World War Soldiers' Documents Archive", Computing & History Today, II 1987.

"Chaim Romkovsky and the Jews of Lodz." A film review for the National Film Theater, London, and the Spiro Institute for Jewish History and Culture, 1985.

"The Jewish Community in Salonika and its Leadership under Nazi Occupation". (in Hebrew, forthcoming).

Scheduled and Recent Presentations

"Women's Employment Opportunities and the Great War: Reassessment of Recruitment to the Women's Army Auxilliary Corps (WAAC)" A conference paper for the Economic History Society annual meeting, Sussex, April 1997.

"Generals and the Physical Deterioration Committee", (July 1993) paper delivered at the Annual Conference of the Society for the Social History of Medicine, University of Southampton, U.K.

"Explaining the Recruitment to the Women's Army Auxilliary Corps in War World I", (February, 1993) a paper delivered at the Military History Seminar, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

"Emily Goes To War: The Women of the WAAC Revisited", (March 1992) paper delivered at the International Workshop on Women, the Construction of Gender and the Great War, The Institute for German History, Tel Aviv University, Israel.

NES Internal Review

"The Socio-Spatial origins of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps - Some Preliminary Results." (December 1991) seminar paper to the Program for Comparative European History at the Wiener Library, Tel Aviv University.

Grants & Honors

1991/3 Visiting Research Associate, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

1991-2 Wiener Fellow, Program for Comparative European History, Institute for German History, Tel Aviv University.

1989-90 Research Fellowship in Economic History, Department of Economics & Related Studies, York University.

1985-7 Leo Beack Grant for post-graduate studies in the U.K.

1984-7 Overseas Research Student Award granted by the British Government.

Scholarship, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Scholarship from the Centre Internatonale, Antibes, France for a 'Cours de langue et de civilization Francaises'.

Dean of Humanities list of academic distinction, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Dean of Students grant for academic distinction, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Appointments in Hebrew and Judaic Stidies.

1994- Instructor at the Skriball Department for Hebrew and Judaic Studies, New York University.

1988-89 Instructor at the Spiro Institute for Jewish History and Culture, Westfield College, London.

1987-88 Instructor at the London Ulpan of the Department of Education, WZO.

1985-89 U.K. representative of Brit Ivrit Olamit (World Hebrew Union) & and the Academic Services Bureau, WZO.

• NES Internal Review

- 1983 Lecturer at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, N'Ve Schechter, Jerusalem, Israel. Lecturer.
- 1983 Hebrew Instructor at Midreshet Yerushalaim of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.
- 1981-3 Hebrew Instructor at the American Institute of the Holy Land Studies, Mt. Zion, Jerusalem.
- 1979-80 Hebrew Instructor at the American Ulpan, Jerusalem.
- 1979 Instructor at the Summer Ulpan, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.
- 1977-8 Instructor at the Israeli Defence Forces' School of Education.

Military Service

- 1975-78 Israeli Defence Forces. Commissioned 1977. Lieutenant on discharge.