Module 4: Printing an Online Submission

Printing an Online Submission

Important Information

- You can print eResearch study applications from the Study Workspace or from within the application.
- The print version of the application includes only the required application sections. Detail information is printed at the end of the document.

eResearch Home Workspace

1. Click on the Submission ID to access the study.

eResearch Study Workspace

2. Click Printer-Friendly Version.

   Note: You can also open the study application and click the Print button to print specific sections of the submission.

Print Window

3. Click Print.

Print Dialog Box

4. Click Print to print the application.